Maria Vittoria Paggini

Maria Vittoria Paggini, designer di origini toscane con un approccio libero e nomade, si dedica sia al design di prodotti che all'arredamento completo di spazi privati e rappresentativi. Il dialogo con Mamoli ha reso ogni dettaglio un'esperienza di lusso quotidiano, dove l'armonia della forma e la funzione si fondono in un'estetica senza tempo.

Per Mamoli ha creato Girotondo, una linea di rubinetteria ed accessori da bagno ispirati alla gioielleria e alla precisione artigianale, che trasformano la salle de bain in un'oasi di stile e comfort.

Maria Vittoria Paggini, a designer of Tuscan origins with a free and nomadic approach, is dedicated both to the design of products and to the complete furnishing of private and representative spaces.

The dialogue with Mamoli has made every detail an everyday luxury experience, where the harmony of form and function come together in a timeless aesthetic.

For Mamoli he created Girotondo, a line of taps and bathroom accessories inspired by jewellery and precision craftsmanship, which transform the salle de bain into an oasis of style and comfort.

Accessori-gioiello, veri e propri decori che trasformano un bagno in salle de bain. Realizzati a mano uno per uno, in ottone saldato e lucidato e completati da una finitura in bagno galvanico, chiamarli (solo) accessori sarebbe riduttivo.

Jewel-accessories, real decorations transform a bathroom into salle de bain. Handmade one by one in soldered, polished brass and completed with a galvanic bath finish, calling them (just) accessories would be reductive.
